

WRITESmart

Writing, Research & Study

Just started at UWA or almost finished? WRITESmart drop-in sessions and workshops are for everyone.

WRITESmart drop-in

Come to the ground floor of the Reid Library to get expert advice on your study, writing and referencing. Bring your notes, essay plans, drafts or assignment questions and talk to a Learning Skills Adviser or Reference Librarian, weekdays during semester between 10am-12pm.

WRITESmart workshops

See the other side of this flyer for workshops on everything from essay writing to presenting in tutorials. No need to book—just come along.

(mα+hs)Smart

Maths & Stats

New to maths or stats at uni? Need to revise your high school maths? Want to study maths better? (mα+hs)Smart has you covered!

(mα+hs)Smart drop-in

(mα+hs)Smart drop-in is held on the ground floor of the Barry J. Marshall Library. Get expert advice on your studies or do some work and get guidance, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays during semester between 10am-12pm.

(mα+hs)Smart workshops

These workshops will help you maximize your maths study skills and explore key maths and stats topics. See the other side of this flyer for more details. No need to book—just come along.

STUDYSmarter

STUDYSmarter is for all UWA students. Our WRITESmart, (mα+hs)Smart and GETSmart services are for undergrads and postgrads who want to get more out of their learning, writing, language, maths, stats and research skills.

Where to find us

Most of our workshops are held on the first or second floors of Student Central (the building directly across from the Co-op Bookshop).

Selected workshops will be held in the Sanders Building, on Myers St.
