The Health Promotion Unit support student health and wellbeing through the award-winning Fit for Study Program.

University can be a challenging time of fun first experiences and health risks. Having a healthy and balanced lifestyle can help you to reach your academic potential and enjoy yourself while you study.

The Unit provides education, training, volunteering opportunities and peer education events for students while advocating for student health and wellness with a focus on:

- Alcohol and other drugs;
- Mental health;
- Sexuality, sexual health and relationships;
- Travel health and
- Health and wellbeing for international students.
