Miracles - The Resurrection in the 21st Century
The 2011 St Thomas More College Chair of Jesuit Studies Lecture by Father Gerald O’Collins, SJ, AC, Emeritus Dean of Theology, Gregorian University of Rome

During the first decade of the twenty-first century, bible scholars, novelists, philosophers, scientists, and theologians have continued to probe the story of the resurrection of Jesus and to publish their conclusions. Many of these books are truly serious studies that deserve attention; a few may be page-turners but belong to the frivolous fringe. This public lecture by Gerald O’Collins, SJ, AC, will critically evaluate the current literature on Jesus’ resurrection and the direction it is taking.

Australian born Gerald O’Collins, SJ, AC, took his PhD at the University of Cambridge and spent thirty-three years teaching at the Gregorian University (Rome), where he was also dean of theology (1985-91). He has been a visiting professor at universities in Ireland, the UK, the USA, Australia and other countries, and is known around the world as a lively and popular lecturer.

He has authored or co-authored sixty books. The latest include: Philip Pullman’s Jesus (Darton, Longman & Todd), Rethinking Fundamental Theology (OUP) and Catholicism: A Very Short Introduction (also OUP).
