Full CARS Toolkit
The CARS toolkits bring together the tools and guides featured throughout the CARS modules.

Tools to get you started for planning your assessment
- Avoiding procrastination
- Managing stress
- Effective time management & Assignment date calculator
- Mind Mapping

Finding resources for your assessment
- Getting started using OneSearch
- Composing a search in OneSearch
- Unit Readings

Advice for evaluating information before using it in your assessments
- Evaluating information and fake news
- Google and Google Scholar Survival Guide

How to reference in your assessment
- Referencing at UWA Guide

Tips for different assessment types:
- Developing essay arguments
- Writing thesis statements
- Structuring essays
- Essay introductions and conclusions
- Tips for writing an essay paragraph
- Writing a report
- Lab reports
- Reflective writing
- Writing an Annotated bibliography
- Keeping up with maths or stats
- Being stuck on maths problems

Tips for Exam preparation
- Preparing for exams
- Strategies for memorising information
- Using Turnitin
- Using Turnitin to submit your assessment

Tips for managing nerves and presenting
- Preparing for tutorials
- Make the most of tutorials - understanding tutorials, speaking in tutorials
- Oral presentations
- Presenting to an audience
- Managing presentation nerves

Tips for working in teams and tackling group assessments
- Working in groups
- Booking a group study room
- How to work in teams
- Student collaboration tools